

WHEREAS, Durham's Structure House will celebrate its 35th Anniversary and its contribution to the treatment of obesity; and

WHEREAS, since 1977, Structure House has helped more than 30,000 people from all 50 states and 35 nations who were battling obesity; and

WHEREAS, as a national leader in the field, Structure Houses is regularly commended on television and radio and by experts across the country; and

WHEREAS, as part of CRC Health Group and now partnering with Wellspring, both adults and youth are trained to lose weight by exercise, nutrition and food control, and lifestyle discipline; and

WHEREAS, the people of Durham express pride in Structure House's achievements and look forward to Wellspring at Structure House's continuing contributions to our local and national citizenry in its vital mission.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, William V. "Bill" Bell, Mayor of the City of Durham, North Carolina, do hereby congratulate the Durham's Structure House on the celebration of their 35th Anniversary for their contribution to the treatment of obesity on February 17, 2012 and hereby urge all citizens to take special note of this observance.

WITNESS my hand and the corporate seal of the City of Durham, North Carolina, this 17th day of February 2012.