

October 8, 2024 -- Robert Weiner interviewed live on London Times Radio, host Andrew Neil, producer/booker Elizabeth Highfield, concerning projections on Election 2024

In a debate with Republicans overseas organizer Sarah Elliott, Bob told Times Radio that Nikki Haley's 10-15% even after she withdrew could cause Harris to exceed projections of her current (today's) NYT-Sienna poll 3% national lead and razor-thin margins both ways in swing electoral college states, because the Haley voters may not tell pollsters who they are really for if they even answer. This would continue the Democrats winning every election since 2017 because of the "not Trump" overriding motivation, Weiner said.
