

Dear Members of the GW Community:

We are pleased to announce the recipients of GW's 11th Annual Faculty Awards!

These awards recognize a diverse group of talented GW faculty who have shown extraordinary dedication to teaching, scholarship, and service to the university. Through our faculty, the heart of our university, we are educating students to be engaged citizens and leaders in their fields.

Ordinarily, we celebrate our award winners with a Faculty Honors Ceremony and Reception. In light of health and safety concerns stemming from the global pandemic, we are postponing this year's live ceremony and reception until we can safely gather in person.

However, we are incredibly excited to announce and "virtually" honor this year's winners and finalists now. Please join us in congratulating this year's winners and finalists for the following prizes and awards:
