WORK EXPERIENCE

Robert Weiner Associates / Solutions for Change Foundation

High-Level Op-ed Writing Intern / Policy Analyst

Washington, DC

September 2026— Present

- Research and co-author op-eds on national political and policy issues for submission to major U.S. media outlets.
- Attend news conferences and engage with policymakers, advocacy organizations, and subject-matter experts to inform reporting and analysis. Project-based, flexible role with biweekly meetings. Hybrid.

The Heights | Boston College's Independent Newspaper

Opinion Columnist

Chestnut Hill, MA

September 2023 — March 2026

- Published biweekly columns examining complex social and political issues; cultivated an engaged readership through nuanced, accessible storytelling; increased average article views by 290% from my first three to final three pieces, with my highest-performing columns averaging 2× typical section-wide readership, and multiple pieces exceeding the average viewership of the section's 5 most-read articles.
- Conducted interviews and primary-source research for long-form reporting on environmental injustice and its impact on communities in West Virginia, balancing competing perspectives from community advocates and coal miners. Collaborated with editors to meet publication deadlines and uphold journalistic standards.

Boston College

Undergraduate Research Fellow

Chestnut Hill, MA

June 2025 — May 2026

- Conducted 150+ hours of archival and primary-source research for a scholarly monograph, fact-checking historical claims, citations, and statistical evidence to ensure accuracy and source reliability.
- Engaged in comprehensive manuscript editing and proofreading, providing dozens of substantive corrections per chapter to improve historical accuracy and editorial quality. Systematically reviewed and validated the book's index to ensure precise cross-referencing and consistency. Delivered introductory remarks at the official book launch.

Boston College

Writing Specialist

Chestnut Hill, MA

September 2024 — May 2026

- Reviewed and edited 40+ undergraduate research papers per semester across academic disciplines, providing individualized feedback on argumentation, organization, clarity and cohesion, thesis workshoping, and source integration. Conducted in-depth pre-session reviews and one-on-one consultations.
- Took initiative beyond standard tutoring responsibilities to develop customized action plans that promoted long-term writing improvement, resulting in high student retention.

ADDITEQ

International Marketing & Communications Intern

Prague, Czech Republic

June 2023 — July 2023

- Led UK market expansion within ADDITEQ's Prague-based international marketing team, executing high-volume corporate outreach (50+ calls per day). Designed email marketing banners and developed campaign strategies for social media, influencer outreach, audience targeting, and brand messaging.

The Pennsylvania State University

Pareto Optimization Research Assistant

State College, PA

January 2023 — May 2023

- Collaborated with faculty on Pareto optimization research in job recruitment by designing Qualtrics surveys, coding survey logic using Open Science Framework methodology, and supporting data collection.

LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

Center for Student Formation Boston College

Halftime Lead

Chestnut Hill, MA

February 2026 — March 2026

- Facilitated small-group discussions for participants, leading conversations on leadership and personal development and helping participants translate program concepts into actionable goals.
- Delivered a memorized 10-minute keynote-style speech following extensive preparation and vocal coaching.

Chinese Culture Club

Co-President

Andover, MA

August 2021 — June 2022

- Coordinated multiple school-wide events with 100+ attendees, including a Spring Festival, to foster intercultural connection and engagement with Chinese traditions. Led weekly meetings to give students opportunities to practice Chinese. Designed weekly activities such as Chinese Jenga, delegated event-planning tasks to board members.
